Dragons Grave Report

Tuesday, September 17, 1996, 7:30 p.m. Totino Fine Arts Center, Rm 115, Northwestern College, Roseville

The Dragons Grave is a unique area in Wyoming with a fantastic deposit of dinosaur fossils on or near the surface. This area has been made available by the owner to creationists for exploration and research. Individuals from the Twin Cities area will report on their first-hand experiences at the Dragons Grave site this past summer. Come and find out what has been accomplished, what is planned and what part you can play in future activities at this unique location.

Upcoming Events

We have some exciting activities scheduled for this fall in our area. Tell your friends, inform your church family, spread the news about these opportunities. Plan now to include these world-class speakers in your plans.

Adventure Safaris

Adventure Safaris is a ministry of the Twin Cities Creation Science Association. This ministry provides training to home schooled children and youth as well as church and family groups. Call the numbers listed below for a catalog of programs.

Our goal is to provide information and training consistent with the Bible account of creation. We provide weekly classes during the school year for home schoolers. Throughout the year we have 1 day, 3 day & 5 day safaris for the whole family or groups to sites of scientific interest.

If you would like to help make displays and projects or are able to help in some other way please contact us. We have several current and future needs that may require your skills.

Call John Nuckols at (612)757-8107 or Russ McGlenn at (612)434-5047 for details on trips and activities. All gifts made out to TCCSA are tax deductible and pay never-ending dividends.

Looking For A Conference Speaker?
