

Double Dose of Common Sense

7:30 PM, November 20 & 21, 2006, Totino Fine Arts Center, Room 116, Northwestern College

Monday November 20 Special Extra Meeting

Dr. Glen Collins of Common Sense Science will present "Real Progress Toward A Theory of Everything." With the Common Sense Science Molecular Model, many things can be predicted that were only guessed at or discovered by accident. We encourage you to come and be enlightened at a bit higher level.

Tuesday November 21 Regular Monthly Meeting

This evening Dr. Collins will present "Fingerprints of God in Creation." Learn of evidence of the Creator in the things Dr. Collins and others has been working on. We invited Dr. Collins for two meetings because of his ability to present information to people of all ages and backgrounds. Bring the whole family for an evening you will be thinking about for a long time.

Dr. Collins is educated in Electrical Engineering, Software design and Artificial Intelligence. He was Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering at the US Naval Academy and has held positions of technical leadership in government and industry for 30 years.

Common Sense Science has worked to develop more accurate physical models for elementary particles, nuclei, atoms and molecules, and the derivation of a new universal force law that applies on all scales ranging from the sub-atomic to the cosmic domain.

All meetings are free and open to the public. A free-will offering will be accepted.

Are you eating a dinosaur for Thanksgiving?

Today many evolutionists say that that the dinosaurs never went extinct, they only evolved into birds. So, are you eating a dinosaur for thanksgiving? Let's examine the evidence. Reptilian lungs are very different than bird lungs. Reptilian lungs are similar to human lungs in that air flows in during inhalation and out during exhalation. Bird lungs, however, have air flowing straight through the lungs into air sacs located throughout the body. These are two totally different systems.

Another area of question is, whether reptilian scales evolved into feathers. Evolutionists have long argued that feathers did evolve from reptile scales; however, their development is quite different. Feathers grow out follicles. This tubular down-growth of epidermis extends deeply into the skin. (In the case of primary feathers, all the way down to the bone). At the base of this follicle, the feather is produced. Reptilian scales are nothing but folds in the skin, like fabric folded over on itself—again, two totally different designs.

So, you are not eating a dinosaur for thanksgiving. God, the Master Designer, created each according to it kind; a bird is a bird, and a reptile is a reptile.

TCCSA's STATEMENT OF BELIEF

We believe in God: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that all of its assertions are historically and scientifically true in the original autographs; this means that the account of origins in Genesis is a factual presentation of actual historical truths.

We believe that the origin of matter and all basic types of living things, including man, came about through direct creative acts of God during the six-day creation week described in Genesis. Whatever biological changes have occurred since the creation week have accomplished only changes within the created kinds.

We believe that the great flood described in Genesis, commonly referred to as the Noachian Flood, was an historic event, world-wide in extent and effect.

We accept the account of the special creation of Adam and Eve as the first man and woman. Their subsequent fall into sin, by disobedience of God's direct command, is the basis for our belief in the necessity of a Savior for all mankind.

Therefore, we believe that Jesus Christ is our Lord and only Savior and that personal faith in Him is necessary for salvation.

Are you moving? Please let us know so you won't miss an issue, and we won't be charged extra.
