

Born to Wonder: Exploring the Intersection of Faith & Science

What: A virtual conversation and benefit event dedicated to connecting Christian faith and knowledge at the University of Minnesota through Anselm House. As the centerpiece of the evening, distinguished Christian scholars Dr. Alister McGrath (Oxford) and Dr. Alan Love (UMN) will discuss the intersection of faith & science.

When: Tuesday, November 17, 2020 | 7:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Where: Guests have the option of gathering at the home of their host to watch the virtual event. For first time guests, we'll even send materials about Anselm House in advance to their home! The link will be emailed to all those who RSVP. We hope to see you there.

About Our Speakers

Alister E. McGrath is Andreas Idreos Professor of Science and Religion at the University of Oxford. In addition to his work at Oxford, McGrath is Senior Research Fellow at Harris Manchester College, Oxford, President of the Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics, and serves as associate priest in a group of Church of England village parishes in the Cotswolds. His personal website can be accessed here.

Alan Love is the John M. Dolan Professor of Philosophy at the University of Minnesota and Director of the Minnesota Center for Philosophy of Science. His research focuses on conceptual issues in biology and has concentrated on evolutionary developmental biology (Evo-devo), developmental biology, molecular biology, and paleontology (among others).