Our Conference Speakers

Dr. Jeff Tomkins holds a Ph.D. in genetics from Clemson University (1996). After receiving his Ph.D., he worked at a genomics institute and became a faculty member in the Department of Genetics and Biochemistry at Clemson. He has published 57 secular research papers in peer-reviewed scientific journals. He was also the Director for the Clemson Environmental Genomics Laboratory. Jeff had become a Christian as an undergraduate at Washington State University and set a goal to eventually work as a scientist and author in the creation science field. In 2009, Dr. Tomkins joined the Institute for Creation Research. He was appointed Director of Life Sciences in 2016 and Director of Research in 2020.

Dr. Marcus Ross holds a B.S. in Earth Science from the Pennsylvania State University, he continued his studies with a M.S. in Vertebrate Paleontology from the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology and a Ph.D. in Environmental Science (Geoscience) from the University of Rhode Island. Dr. Ross serves as Director of the Center for Creation Studies and Professor of Geology at Liberty University. He regularly contributes to creationist research and education in both technical and popular literature.

Helmut Welke is a retired engineering manager with a Fortune 100 company. He holds BS and MS degrees in industrial engineering from the University of Illinois and has held positions in a variety of national and international assignments. He is also a member of the Creation Research Society and is an Ambassador for Logos Research Associates. He is now an international Creation Science speaker.
